General Information

When?
September 9-11, 2020. 3 hours each day

Where?
Virtual Platform

Who?
Young professionals and family policies advocates

How?
Workshops, Seminars and Case-method sessions

How much?
Free

Any requirements?
Strong interest on family issues and proficiency in English language

How to apply?
CV and Cover letter to un@iffd.org

More info?
François Jung, un@iffd.org
Updated info on familyperspective.org/IAW

Partners
Instituto de la Familia
Universidad de La Sabana, Colombia
United Nations System
- Child Development
- Youth Transitions
- Intergenerational Relations

2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development
- SDG 1. End poverty in all its forms everywhere
Unpaid care and time poverty at home
Intergenerational cycle of poverty
- SDG 3. Ensure healthy lives
Psychological well-being
- SDG 4. Ensure quality education
Parenting Education / Positive parenting
Early Childhood Development
- SDG 5. Achieve gender equality
Shared responsibility at home
Flexible work arrangements for parents
- SDG 8. Inclusive economic growth
Youth transitions and social inclusion
Family formation and vulnerabilities

Family perspective and International advocacy
- Role of the State on family policies
- Civil Society, Private Sector and the Family
- Demographic challenges & Development
- Global advocacy at the UN and EU
- Local advocacy and youth initiatives

Speakers

Daryl Higgins
Director of Institute of Child Protection Studies
Australian Catholic University

Heidi Ullman
Social Affairs Officer, United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean

Veerle Miranda
Senior Economist, Employment, Labour and Social Affairs Directorate, OECD.

Kinga Joo
Member
EU Economic and Social Committee

Anis Ben Brik
Associate Professor, College of Public Policy,
Hamad Bin Khalifa University, Qatar

Bahira Trask
Chair of Dep. Human Develop. & Family Studies
University of Delaware

Marina Morais
International Affairs and City Networks
Prefeitura de São Paulo, Brazil

Sofia García
Head of Strategic Partnerships,
SOS Children’s Villages International

Enrico Misasi
Member
Federal Chamber of Deputies, Brazil

Chemba Raghavan
Early Childhood Development (ECD) Specialist
UNICEF

Donna Butts
Executive Director
Generations United

Heba Al-Fara
Family Policy Officer
Doha International Family Institute